

Here are some of of the many ways to use Parlay

English & Literature

1. Creative writing practice
2. Building and evaluating arguments
3. Literature reflections
4. Text analysis (author intent, themes, poetry etc.)
5. Harkness tables, fishbowls, socratic circles
6. Silent debates
7. Argumentative essay prep
8. Journal writing

Social Studies & Humanities

1. Exploring current events
2. Primary source analysis
3. Written class discussions/debates
4. Verbal class discussions/debates
5. Case studies
6. Journal writing

Languages

1. Writing practice (journaling, text analysis, reflections etc.)
2. Oral practice through in-class discussion

Science

1. Discussions about science in the real world
2. Lab report peer feedback activities
3. Flipped classroom problem solving

Math

1. Discussions about math in the real world
2. Flipped classroom problem solving
3. Collaborative oral discussions

Fine Arts

1. Discussions about art in society
2. Music, painting, and photography critiques
3. Peer feedback activities

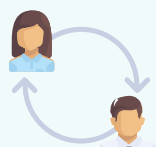

Guidance and Growth

1. Interpersonal conflict resolution discussions
2. Exploring topics in SEL
3. Exploring topics in Digital Citizenship
4. Reflective conversations

Instructional Strategies

1. Inquiry Based Learning
2. Project Based Learning
3. Think Pair Share
4. Jigsaw Method
5. Peer Feedback Exercises
6. Formative Assessments

Professional Development

1. "How might we _____" problem solving
2. "I need help with _____" peer support
3. Staff meetings
4. Breakout sessions
5. Mission and vision planning

Curious to learn more? Our team is ready to help you with any and all of the above.

LOGIN / SIGNUP